Druggist Held in Impersonation

SAN DIEGO (UPI)A San Pedro pharmacist who said he was searching for a gold mine was indicted Wednesday by a federal Grand Jury for impersonating a federal officer.

Matthew John Mirkovich, 33, is free on $500 bail pending arraignment.

He is accused of obtaining two maps of Sonora, Mexico, last January from the Scripps Institution of Oceanography by saying he was a Central Intelligence Agency officer. When he failed to return the maps, officials became suspicious and called the CIA who said they never heard of him.
